A word from the President

Keith Stackpole was a very entertaining speaker although he confessed that he had not addressed a group for nearly 15 years. Our time constraints were unfortunate as I am sure that he could have entertained us for much longer and questions would undoubtedly have extended across a wide range of cricket related subjects.

It was wonderful to see Lynne Rodda join us as well as having four other visitors. The pity was that our immediate past president was not present to meet his namesake, my business partner, the other Wayne Dunstan.

Inside last week's Cog is a list of committees. I have encouraged each chair to contact the members of their respective committees and to meet as soon as possible to have a chat and to discuss their ideas and aims for the year. This is particularly important given that we have our Assistant District Governor, Bruce Anderson attending next week. Board members need to be present by 12 o'clock.

The District Governor, Bernie Bott is attending the following week, so we need to be on the ball.
