A word from the President

Last week's speaker, Judy O'Donohue, spoke inspiringly about jobs and young people. More of that inside. Just the sort of person we would love to have in our Club!

Max Chester has been heavily involved in a project with a group of Turkish Rotarians who are coming to Melbourne for Anzac Day next year. Last week I received an email from our Assistant District Governor, Bruce Anderson, seeking expressions of interest for hosting these Rotarians for a few days. At the Board Meeting on Tuesday, we decided that we would like to be involved, so I have advised him accordingly. Obviously the details are very sketchy, but it could be a wonderful exercise.

Our numbers are still very low, although some of the wandering members are returning. Please make an effort to join us on Monday. Tony Shields from the Rotary Club of Greensborough will talk to us about his business which is buying and selling stamps and coins. Who knows, that collection from your childhood might even be worth a 'few bob'!

Vasko's are unavailable on 2 October, so we shall take the opportunity to follow up our recent connection with RSL on Bell and meet there instead. Pencil it in – it is only 2 weeks away.

President Tony

ROTARY CLUB OF HEIDELBERG COLLEAGUES:
SUNDAY 17 SEPTEMBER, FROM 8.30 a.m. UNTIL 1 p.m.
OLIVIA NEWTON-JOHN WELLNESS WALK &
RESEARCH RUN
ACADEMIC LAWN, LATROBE UNIVERSITY,
KINGSBURY DRIVE, BUNDOORA

Club member Leigh Wallace has arranged free registrations for us to walk at this year's fundraising event for the Olivia Newton-John Cancer Wellness & Research Centre. Olivia will be there.

This year we have been asked to assist with the cooking and sale of sausages at the IGA Supermarkets Stand, utilising IGA equipment and supplies. (IGA has become a major supporter of the event.) Please let Leigh know on Monday 11 September if you are going to walk the 5km circuit and/or if you are able to help at the IGA Supermarkets Stand. It presents us with another opportunity to show the community that Rotary is at work in our region. If we have enough volunteers we can arrange shifts so that you will not be obliged to attend for the entire duration from 8.30 a.m. until 1 p.m. (But of course you are welcome to do so.)

If you are going to attend, Leigh will ensure that you receive a detailed map and other instructions for the day so please make sure he has your correct email address.

Leigh's mobile phone number is 0400 570 024.

Does the Wayne in Spain stay mainly on the plane? Or in Madrid?

Guest Speaker Judy O'Donohue of "Career Me Now" with Barbara Winter

Judy gave us an excellent presentation entitled "Future Careers for Young People" in which she provided a wealth of valuable information regarding current global impacts, future employment trends, employer expectations and what young people need to do to "get on". She also had advice on what we can do as parents and grandparents to help.

Judy's own background, education and life experience make her an ideal Careers advisor and her enthusiasm for life and her positive attitude shone through.

Thank you Judy for an inspirational address.
